The Winchmore Hill Viral Kindness Initiative

The Winchmore Hill Residents Association is taking a lead from other communities around the country to work together in order to help those in our area who will be most affected by the Corona virus whether through self-isolation or as result of contracting the virus.

You may have seen cut out cards like the one below or had other similar ones put through your door already.

We want to act as a central resource and database for people who are prepared to help someone in need local to them and linking volunteers to those people in need when they need help.

To be able to offer this support we are looking for members and anyone else who lives in this area who would like to volunteer to help someone in their road if need be in order to do this please go to:

<http://whresidents.org>

There you will find more information and a link to a Google form where you can enter your details. We will then add you to our list of people and roads we already have on the website.

The idea is that one volunteer per road will distribute these cut out cards and then in the future if someone in need contacts them then they can respond or request help from another volunteer if there is more than one per road.

The list on the website also acts as a resource for anyone needing help in the future who didn't receive a card or has lost it.

So please let anyone who might need our help and has internet access know the details of the Winchmore Hill Residents Association website.

This is a very worrying time for all of us but we are hoping that as a community we can come together to help out neighbours in difficulty and we can all work together to get through this as smoothly as possible.

If you didn't know about us, the Winchmore Hill Residents Association has been going a long time but was relaunched late last year. We are non-political group run by residents, who seek to protect the quality of life in Winchmore Hill now and for future generations. We aren't asking for subscriptions to become a member at the moment, we just want as many local people as possible to sign up via our website to receive our emails and let us know what local issues matter to them.
